

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

John 14:27

Where can you find solace in the midst of disruption?

Not long ago anxiety was primarily understood as a psychological problem requiring intervention. Now, we are seeing massive changes in global culture, an increase in terrorist threats, and a volatile economic climate world-wide. Younger people are concerned about their long term job prospects and seniors are wondering if they will outlive their financial resources. While many of us still experience psychological distress, a new kind of anxiety is washing over the planet, one that demands a fresh look at the shalom/peace that is provided by the triune God.

This day of solace with God will combine teaching, reflection, prayer, silence, and art to explore these themes and to invite us into a space where we can find solace in the midst of disruption.

A Day of Solace With God
Saturday, February 18, 9AM—4:30PM - Cost $35 (includes snacks & lunch)
North Creek Presbyterian Church, 621 164th St. SE, Mill Creek, WA 98012

Facilitators: Rev. Dr. Rod & Bev Wilson

As a renowned Christian leader in Canada and the U.S., Rod travels the world with Bev to teach, inspire, and counsel Christians, pastors, and leaders. A clinical psychologist with theological training, Rod served as President and Professor at Regent College, Canada (2000-2015). He has written two award-winning books, Counseling and Community and How Do I Help a Hurting Friend?, as well as a book on anger and another on faith and fundraising.

Bev's early employment was in the area of Human Resources and Staff Training, and she has also served in various volunteer roles alongside Rod. An artist who purposefully blends the contemplative with her art in photography and acrylic abstract painting, Bev is involved in soul care and spiritual direction with people on-line around the world.
