

TALKING ABOUT RACE AT MADRONA GRACE

A TOWN HALL-STYLE FILM & DISCUSSION SERIES

Saturday, June 3, 2-4 p.m.

In 1866, six all-Black cavalry and infantry regiments were created after Congress passed the Army Organization Act. They came to be known as Buffalo Soldiers. The film explores the often contradictory role played by the Buffalo Soldiers with particular emphasis on the settling of the American west. Gather for light snacks followed by the film and a discussion with filmmaker Dru Holley.

Saturday, June 17, 4-7 p.m.

This story of how gangs, fear and power arrested the development of a community in Tacoma, Washington spotlights formerly incarcerated prisoner Kimonti Carter. He and others create a model of education that is transforming their lives, their communities, our prisons and our own humanity. Following dinner, sponsored by European Dissent Seattle, view the film, and meet Kimonti Carter and members of the Black Prisoners' Caucus.
